COLUMBUS, Ga. - The Armstrong State University softball squad ran its win streak to five games with a Peach Belt Conference sweep of host Columbus State University on Friday evening at Cougar Field. The Pirates took game one, 8-4, then won game two by an 8-0 score.

Armstrong (19-9, 8-2 PBC) maintained its third-place spot in the league standings with the sweep, while Columbus State (19-21, 5-11 PBC) saw its slide reach five games. The Pirates complete their weekend road swing by traveling to Georgia Southwestern on Saturday for a 1:00 p.m. Peach Belt Conference doubleheader against the Hurricanes.

Sophomore Jane Trzaska launched a grand slam home run in game one, overcoming an early 4-1 deficit and helping the Pirates pick up the 8-4 win in game two. Ollivia McLemore (10-3) notched the win in game one, going the distance and giving up just three hits and four runs, walking two and striking out two for the victory.

Columbus State's Sydney Barker (1-1) took the loss in game one, giving up three hits and five runs in 1 1/3 innings of work, walking four.

Peyton Roth had three hits and two runs scored, while Trzaska finished with four RBI and Alexis Mercer went 2-for-4 with two runs scored. Kristen Carr's RBI double led the Cougars at the plate in game one.

Game two saw Trzaska (9-6) spin a three-hit shutout to notch the 8-0 win. Trzaska walked four and struck out two in winning her second straight start.

Sierra Newman went 3-for-4 with a three-run triple and three runs scored in game two for the Pirates, while Rachel Reynolds went 2-for-3 with a two-run home run.
